

Southeast Geometry Seminar II

December 10, 2002 – Georgia Institute of Technology

Plenary Speaker: Gang Tian (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)
New progress on Einstein metrics

Invited Speakers:

Jason Cantarella

(University of Georgia)

Wilfrid Gangbo

(Georgia Institute of Technology)

Vladimir Olikier

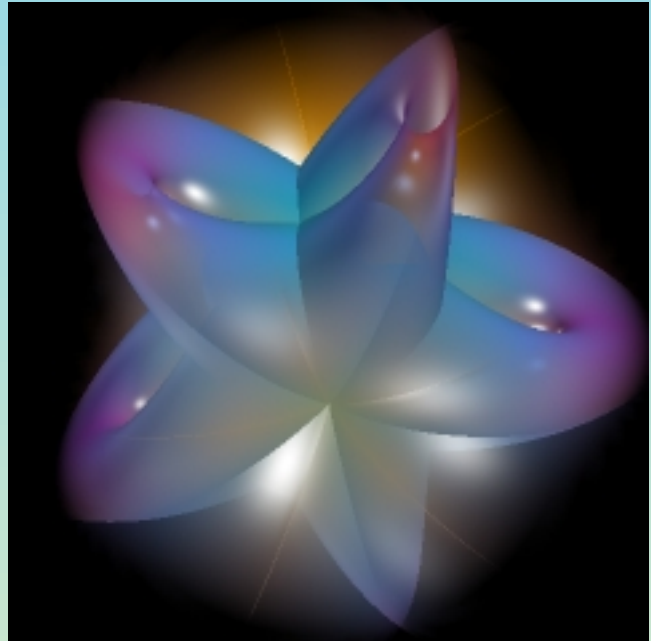

(Emory University)

Victor Patrangenaru

(Georgia State University)

Henghui Zou

(University of Alabama, Birmingham)

The Southeast Geometry Seminar (SGS) is a new semiannual series of one day events sponsored jointly by Georgia Institute of Technology,

University of Tennessee, Knoxville, and University of Alabama at Birmingham.

The organizers are John McCuan (GA Tech), Alex Freire (UTK), Gilbert Weinstein (UAB), and Sumio Yamada (UAB).

All lectures will take place in the Skiles Building,
Room 10 (Ground Floor)

For further information see

www.math.gatech.edu/news/conferences/sgs/